DAY 4 – OCT 31ST – FLORENCE/ORVIETO/SPOLETO/ASSISI Today, after breakfast, we depart for Orvieto, the town closely associated with the Eucharistic Miracle of Bolsena. In 1263 a pious priest celebrating Mass in a church in Bolsena found it hard to believe that Christ was actually Present in the consecrated Host. Before even speaking a word of consecration blood started to seep from the Host and trickle over his hands and on to the altar and corporal. The word spread and the Host and corporal were taken to Orvieto where we will visit the famous Cathedral of Orvieto to see the consecrated Host and linen cloth bearing the stains of blood. Because of this Miracle the church instituted The Feast of Corpus Christi. After Mass we continue to Spoleto a lovely town where its first historical mention dates back to 241 BC. We will visit the Duomo of S. Maria Assunta erected on the site of a primitive Christian temple, the original Duomo was began in 1175 and completed in 1229. Its Romanesque facade was remodeled during the Renaissance and now has beautiful pink stone, 8 rose windows, and gold mosaics. We proceed to Assisi beloved town of Gentle St Francis for dinner and overnight. (B, D)

DAY 5 – NOV 1ST – ASSISI ALL SAINTS DAY This morning after breakfast, we make our way to the Basilica of St. Francis to celebrate Mass for All Saint’s Day. Our next stop is the Church of St. Clare, the foundress of the Order of the Poor Clares where we see her incorrupt body and tomb. We proceed to the Basilica of St. Mary of the Angels where St Francis spent most of his life and started the Franciscan Order. We will see the Chapel of the Portiuncola, the rose bush and the cave where he retired for pray. Next is the Church of San Damiano where St Francis encountered Christ in 1205. The church was very run down and while St Francis prayed he saw a figure of Christ crucified come alive and say to him, “Francis, don’t you see my church is crumbling apart? Go, there, and restore it”. After repairing the church, St Francis came to realize God’s message was for him to restore the Church as a whole. Our last visit is to the Heritage where St. Francis went to pray and contemplate. Balance of the day is at leisure to stroll the quaint streets and shops. Another precious relic in the Basilica of St. Rita is the Eucharistic Miracle of Cascia. In 1330 a gravely ill peasant called for a priest to receive Communion. The priest in a hurry did not put the Eucharist in the ciborium but placed it in a prayer book. When he reached the peasant and opened the book he saw that the Host transferred into a clot of blood and the pages of the book marked with blood. Our next visit is Norcia, home of St. Benedict and his twin sister St. Scholastica born in 480. The church was erected above the house where they where born and part of the fundament can be seen in the crypt. The church itself is of 14th century and has this wonderful almost archaic and simple façade. Over 50,000 pilgrimages from all over the world come every year. The Charism of the Monks of Norcia is “to return to the spirit of the founder” After our visit we head to Rome the Eternal City, we check into our hotel, balance of the day at leisure. We will have time to marvel at the Pieta and Bernini’s amazing bronze canopy. We will see the glass tomb of Pope John the XXIII and visit the tomb of Blessed Pope John Paul II before we visit the Vatican Museums featuring a visit to the breathtaking Sistine Chapel. Balance of the day at your leisure to explore Rome on your own. Don’t forget to visit the Trevi Fountain to toss a coin over your left shoulder, tradition says by doing so you will return again to Rome. Dinner and overnight in Rome. (B, D)
